

HULLABALOO HELLO SCHEDULE

AUGUST 21-SEPTEMBER 3, 2023

TULANE
UNIVERSITY

Signature Events

These are signature Hullabaloo Hello events scheduled exclusively for the first two weeks of classes.

Tuesday August 22	Student Employment Part-Time Job Fair The Fall Student Part-Time Job Fair connects new and continuing students with on and off-campus part-time employment opportunities. Register on Handshake or stop by on the day of the fair!	Lavin-Bernick Center	10am-2pm
Saturday August 26	Outreach Tulane 2023 Outreach Tulane is a campus-wide day of service, coordinating over 1,000 volunteers at project sites throughout New Orleans. First-years work alongside upperclass peers, faculty, and staff to support the community they'll call home for the next four years. Register on WaveSync !	Monroe Quad	8am-2pm
Monday August 28	Planner Jam at Mondays at Mussafer Set yourself up for success with Planner Jam! This is a drop-in event where a success coach will share tips and tricks for planning and staying on top of your semester. Bring your syllabi, computer, planner, and anything else you might need to get organized!	Mussafer Hall	12pm-2pm
Wednesday August 30	Transcending the Wave In 1963, Tulane admitted the first Black students to pursue their academic goals of earning advanced degrees. Almost six decades later, we are welcoming more than 500 first year students who identify as Black Indigenous, Latine/ Hispanic, Asian, Pacific Islander, and people of color. We are also welcoming a growing community of queer and trans students to the Tulane community. To honor the continued growth while centering students who hold multiple identities, we will give new students a cultural pin. This program will be followed by an outdoor welcome reception featuring various student organizations, affinity groups, and a group photo.	Richardson Building 117	5:30pm-7:30pm
Thursday August 31	Reading Project Keynote Lecture Continue your engagement of the common read at the 2023 Kylene and Brad Beers Reading Project Keynote Lecture, "On Earth We're All Some Sort of Refugee Now: Political, Climate, Cultural". This year's lecture features Vietnam-born, New Orleans local screenwriter and producer, Thuc Nguyen, and VAYLA Executive Director, Dr. Jacqueline Thanh.	Dixon Hall	6pm
Friday September 1	Front Porch Friday Hosted by Newcomb-Tulane College (NTC), Front Porch Friday is a monthly student event outside of Cudd Hall where students can network with peers and NTC departments while enjoying live music, local food, and more!	Cudd Hall	10am-1pm

Continued on next page!

TULANE UNIVERSITY

Signature Events

Friday
September 1

First Fest

Celebrate your completion of Hullabaloo Hello at First Fest! Enjoy live performances from various student organizations, a campus resource fair, local food vendors, and lawn games. All first-year students who attend will receive an exclusive Hullabaloo Hello patch.

Berger Family Lawn

5pm-7pm

Saturday
September 2

Green Wave Football Game

Cheer on the Green Wave at the first football game of the season! Kick off the celebration with a tailgate on Berger Family Lawn.

Yulman Stadium

7pm

Sunday
September 3

Fall Activities Expo

Looking to get involved on campus? Find your community? Take on leadership positions? Come check out the Fall Activities Expo! Over 130 student organizations will be in attendance, so it is a great opportunity to get connected and make an impact on campus!

Reily Recreation Center 12pm-3pm

Be sure to check WaveSync regularly as more events become available!

HULLABALOO
HELLO

Recurring Programs

These are just some of the recurring programs you can expect to occur throughout your entire first year and beyond. Most of these events offer free food or giveaways!

Mondays

Snack Station

Tap your student ID & enjoy free grab-&-go snacks while supplies last! Please limit 2 snacks per person.

Mussafer Hall

9am-11am

Mondays at Mussafer

Hosted by the Office of First-Year Experience (FYE), Mondays at Mussafer is designed to connect first-year students with campus resources eager to support your success. Enjoy lively conversation, fun activities, free snacks, and exclusive first-year giveaways.

Mussafer Hall

12pm-2pm

Tuesdays

Tulane Tuesday

Hosted by the Lavin-Bernick Center for Student Life (LBC), Tulane Tuesday is a weekly event designed to celebrate our school spirit as Tulanians! On Tuesday of each week, members of the Tulane community wearing Tulane gear in the LBC between designated hours will be treated to something special.

Lavin-Bernick Center

11am-1pm

Global Café

Global Café is a weekly coffee gathering for international and internationally-minded Tulanians. This program is sponsored by the Office of International Students and Scholars (OISS), Office of Study Abroad, Center for Global Education (CGE), Freeman Study Abroad, Tulane Law School, and the Lavin-Bernick Center for Student Life (LBC). The first event will take place on September 5.

Lavin-Bernick Center

2pm-4pm

Wednesdays

Wednesdays with the Center for Intercultural Life

Hosted by the Office of Multicultural Affairs (OMA), Wednesdays with the CIL invites students to enjoy free lunch and intercultural life updates in the Carolyn Barber Pierre Center for Intercultural Life (CIL). Get to know the leaders of our multicultural student organizations and engage with OMA's co-sponsors throughout the year.

Richardson Building 115

12pm-1pm

Thursdays

Equity Thursdays

Hosted by the Center for Academic Equity (CAE), Equity Thursdays is a weekly conversation and lunch series. CAE offers workshops, presentations, and discussions led by members of the Tulane community and guests from Greater New Orleans. Join to discuss cutting edge research, explore academic opportunities, and reflect on the intersection of identity and the academic experience.

Richardson Building 115

12:30pm-1:30pm

Continued on next page!

TULANE UNIVERSITY

Recurring Programs

Treat Yourself Thursday

Enjoy a chair massage from a licensed professional. In the waiting room, engage with our decompressions session. Music, coloring books, essential oils and a new activity weekly with the Office of Multicultural Affairs and The Well for Health Promotion.

Richardson
Building 101

3pm-5pm

Fridays

Free Donut Friday

Enjoy free donuts every Friday in Cudd Hall lobby while supplies last. Free Donut Friday begins on August 25.

Cudd Hall

9am

Front Porch Friday (occurs monthly)

Hosted by Newcomb-Tulane College (NTC), Front Porch Friday is a monthly student event outside of Cudd Hall where students can network with peers and NTC departments while enjoying live music, local food, and more! The first event will take place on September 1.

Cudd Hall

10am-1pm

First-Gen Fridays (occurs monthly)

Hosted by the Center for Academic Equity (CAE), First-Gen Fridays is a monthly event series where we bring first-gen students together for free food and resources to help build a sense of community and a network of support for our first-generation college students. The first event will take place on September 8.

Mussafer Hall
100

5pm-
6:30pm

Newcomb-Tulane College offers free coffee daily in Cudd Hall!

